The Stutthof Concentration Camp

The concentration camp in Stutthof was the first camp built in Poland by the Nazis. It was established in the first days of World War II to exterminate educated Poles. Now we know that three years earlier, the Nazis had already decided who was to be sent there. During the 5 years of existence of the Concentration Camp in Stutthof, prisoners from 28 countries were held here. The camp was freed by the Soviet Army on the 9th of May 1945.

During the visit to the camp we will see: a wooden prison barracks, a former command post building and a gas chamber.

In Stutthof we can see one of the following movies:

"Ambulance" - 16 min

"Konzentrationslager Stutthof bei Danzig" - 30 min.

"Albert Forster" - 25 min.

"Stutthof some days later" - 19 min.

The Stutthof Concentration Camp tour will take approximately 2 hours, including one of the films. Together with a journey from Gdansk 4- 5 hours will be needed.

Entrance to all former Nazi concentration camps in Poland are free of charge. The museum only charges 3 zloty per person for watching the movies.

It is not advisable for children under 14 years.

Prices for only guiding and guiding and transport. All is PER TOUR and NOT per person.
