World War 2 Tour in Gdansk – Private Guided Experience with Westerplatte & WWII Museum

Last update – March 2026

You will stand at Westerplatte, the very place where World War II began, and hear the story of the first shots that changed the course of history.

In the heart of Gdansk, at the Polish Post Office, you will discover a powerful story of courage and resistance against overwhelming odds.

At the Museum of the Second World War, you will walk through deeply moving exhibitions that bring personal stories, emotions, and the human side of the war vividly to life.
